

The Third Age

The Role of Faith Based Communities in Elder Care

In many cultures the term “The Third Age” is used to describe the senior years. This conference will explore the ways in which faith based communities can be active participants in caring for elders. The sessions and speakers will provide resources and proven models for caring for the Third Age that can be replicated in your community.

Presentations include:

- Aging 101
- Creating an Age Friendly Rhode Island
- Best practices in Faith Based Communities
